DEMOCRATS' DIRTY DODGE.

Scurrilous Cartoon of the President.

Mudslinging Campaign in Maryland.

President's Birthday Quietly Celebrated—A McKinley Arch Fund Started.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The managers of the Democratic machine of the State of Maryland are having thousands of lithographs of a cartoon of the President, the subject is the entertainment by President Roosevelt of Booker T. Washington. In the upper corner of the picture is a cartoon of the President, evidently copied from Oppen's work before the assassination of President McKinley. He is shaking hands with a burly looking negro, who smiles as the President says:

"I wish you would dine with Mrs. Roosevelt and myself this afternoon." Below, the same negro is presented as sitting at the table with Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt. The President is severely caricatured, is talking and laughing with him, while Mrs. Roosevelt is represented as smiling as she pours tea for them.

McKINLEY MEMORIAL ARCH.

POPULAR SUBSCRIPTIONS ASKED. BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M. J. WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—The William McKinley Memorial Arch Association today issued this statement to the public:

"President McKinley's memorial is inscribed in the hearts of his countrymen. But their unexpressed affection and demands expression in a material memorial in character, to be erected at the National Capital, the scene of his greatest labors and achievements. The William McKinley Memorial Arch Association has been incorporated under the laws of the District of Columbia to meet this desire by the erection of a national memorial arch in honor of President McKinley, in the city of Washington, by national popular subscription.

"President Roosevelt has accepted honorary membership in the association. It is proposed to place the memorial arch preferably at the Washington approach to the Potomac bridge across the Potomac, connecting Washington with Arlington, which President McKinley desired and recommended to Congress as a monument to American patriotism.

"Contributors to the fund will be made members of the William McKinley Memorial Arch Association. They will receive all the rights and privileges of membership of all contributors. Contributions of any amount may be made by individuals, firms, corporations, or societies, and are accepted with confidence and confidence expects the cooperation of governors of States and Territories, and of the press of all other public officials, of the press of the country, of the churches, colleges and schools and of all patriotic entities, and requests that they take immediate action to promote its objects by making and securing subscriptions. All communications, except remittances, should be addressed to Thomas F. Walsh, Secretary, Washington, D. C.

"The association is in entire sympathy with the proposition to erect a national memorial to the late President at his grave in Canton, Ohio."

INTERSTATE COMMERCE.

COMMISSION GETS HEARINGS. BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M. J. WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—A number of hearings on important freight tariff contents have been arranged by the Interstate Commerce Commission. Two will be held in Chicago early next month. On the 31st inst., the commission will hear the case of the National Hay Association against the Lake Shore and other railroads involving the classification of hay, that article having been raised from class 5 to class 3, in the tariff sheets, and on November 2 a hearing will be held on the case of the grain raisers from Illinois to points in the Mississippi Valley. The commission on November 11 will hear the case of the Denver and Pacific Coast points, George K. Kindel and the Denver Chamber of Commerce are the complainants in these cases.

Several important cases are scheduled for hearing in this city. The famous case of the Union Pacific Men's League of St. Louis against the Santa Fe and numerous other roads, involving relative rates applied to carload and fractional carload shipments, will be heard in this city on December 3.

WAR RECORDS.

GEN. AINSWORTH'S REPORT. BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M. J. WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—Brig-Gen. Frederick C. Ainsworth, president of the Record and Pension Office, in his annual report to the Secretary of War, shows that 118,000 medals were received and disposed of during the fiscal year. His report relates mainly to records of officers and soldiers kept for the army and the Pension Office. It also deals with medals of honor and record of soldiers receiving medals are furnished the proper officers through Gen. Ainsworth's bureau. He reviews at some length the subject of medals of honor and the laws under which they are granted. Gen. Ainsworth says the past year has witnessed the practical completion of the work, so many years in progress, of the publication of the official records of the Union and Confederate armies during the Civil War. They make a total of 125,730 pages of text.

PRESIDENT'S BIRTHDAY.

NO FORMAL CELEBRATION. BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M. J. WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—Today was the forty-third anniversary of the birth of President Roosevelt. Occurring on Sunday, there was no formal celebration. Dr. Nichols, a friend from Baltimore, was at the White House a portion of the day, and tonight Commander Cowles was a guest at dinner. The President attended religious services at Grace Reformed Church, as usual.

VERDICT OF SCHLEY COURT IS A PUZZLE.

ADMIRAL'S CONDUCT IN BATTLE NOT IN QUESTION.

If He is Exonerated of All Blame, Then a Score of Other Naval Officers Are Condemned for Giving Questionable Testimony.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M. J. WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Schley court of inquiry will close testimony in this celebrated battle, which Admiral Schley has proved to be an effective witness before the public. His dramatic description of the battle of Santiago was admirable, and his friends are referring to it as his vindication.

But there has never been any question raised against Schley's conduct in the battle of Santiago, except as to the wisdom of the loop made by the Brooklyn. Admiral Sampson, in his report, praised Schley's conduct at Santiago, and left to the Navy Department the question as to how far that conduct should wipe out his "repensible conduct," preliminary to the battle. Schley's conduct while in command of the "Flying Squadron," and the subject of inquiry, and the court will pay little attention to the story of the battle.

In testifying to the movements of his squadron before Sampson arrived at Santiago and assumed supreme command, Schley simply contradicted the testimony of a score of witnesses against him, and could not recollect as to others.

Should the court decide that Schley's testimony is correct, it must criticize the testimony of such naval officers as Higginson, Sigbee, Cotton, Evans and a dozen others of rank almost equal to that of Schley.

A high officer in the army, who has had much experience in conducting courts-martial and courts of inquiry, said Schley's testimony must necessarily be accepted with great caution. "Admiral Schley's testimony was different from that of all other witnesses," said this officer. "He is the subject of inquiry, and has been present to hear all the testimony offered. He has been able to compare this testimony and sum it up in a general denial."

"Since Admiral Schley read most of his testimony, as his counsel held a typewritten copy of the story to correct him should he make mistakes. It would not be unfair to assume that it was prepared with the aid of counsel. It was, therefore, a summing up of the defense, and an argument rather than testimony. The only real testimony of Admiral Schley was that under cross-examination. The court cannot accept such testimony as absolutely trustworthy, because in many points it is contradicted by not one, but a dozen witnesses, whose conduct has never been brought into question. The court must now judge as to how far these witnesses were credible, and how far the admiral, testifying in his own defense, may be considered as a trustworthy witness."

"Flat contradictions make the duty of the court an unpleasant one. I cannot find Schley blameless without assuming that the majority of the naval officers called before him were lying, and should be subject to court-martial. It is not a question as to the friendship of the court for Admiral Schley. They are judges and should judge on the evidence. The testimony regarding Schley's conduct as commander of the fleet in time of war. The testimony against him is so overwhelming that the court must decide as to which is the more credible."

Friends of Schley are beginning to talk about a Congressional investigation in the selection of a husband, and against him. Congressmen Cummings of New York and Mudd of Maryland are said to have resolutions already prepared. It is not proposed to accept anything short of complete vindication, or to show the military and naval records of the public sentiment will sustain such a demand. It is also proposed to have Congress create the rank of vice-admiral for Schley, and to have him restored to the active list to enjoy this rank.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

American Filler Tobacco.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—Secretary Wilson announced today that experts of the Agricultural Department will hunt all over the United States and its new possessions for a tobacco suitable for the cultivation of the filler tobacco, such as is now raised in Cuba so that the all the filler tobacco used in this country eventually may be raised within the boundaries of the United States.

RELIEF IN A NEW ROLE.

Popular Actor Plays an Impromptu Part in a Pugilistic Scene—Punishes a Joke for Abusing a Lady.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES. NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Kyrie Bell, the actor, this evening played an impromptu part in front of the Vanderbilt entrance to the Grand Central depot, that brought him a lot of cheers from a crowd that witnessed it. Bell was awaiting the arrival of Manager Liebler, who later accompanied him to Milwaukee, where a hearse cab drove up, and a handsome and stylishly-dressed young woman alighted. She reached for her purse to pay her fare and could not find it. She fanned the crowd, her pockets, turned all kinds of colors, then scolded the cab, but the purse was missing. She tried to tender the John Liebler but he refused to accept it, using boisterous language.

"You hand over a dollar or go to jail," yelled in a high voice. At this juncture Bell intervened, listened to the lady's story, and then tendered the John Liebler. The cabman became incensed and abused him a short-arse felt in the nose that started the claret all over his face, while spectators roared with laughter. "Now you'll get nothing," said Bell, as he escorted the young lady to the train.

Sensational Escape of Suspected Bandit.

Desperado Leads Police a Terrific Chase.

Ice Wagon, Buggy and Saddle Horse Used by Fugitive—Bloodhounds Shot.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M. J. NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 22.—A desperate man fought his way clear of two detectives here today and after a terrific chase made good his escape. In his race for liberty he utilized a two-horse wagon team, a horse and buggy and a riding horse, all forcibly taken, while two dead bloodhounds marked the first portion of his trail.

Officers believe the man is one of the gang that held up the Great Northern express near Wagner, Mont., last June, his attempt to get change for a $20 bill of the series secured in that robbery attracting the attention of the police to him.

At 10:30 o'clock this morning a raw-boned, middle-aged man with a high forehead, with florid complexion, offered the bill in payment of a small purchase made at a store on the public square. Difficulty in making the change caused the salesman to closely notice the bill, which proved to be on the Montana bank, which the stolen bills were assigned.

The police were quickly notified, the clerk meanwhile delaying the matter of change.

Detectives Dwyer and Dickens were soon on hand and, approaching the man, demanded his name. "Ferguson," was the reply, and after another question or two, Detective Dwyer demanded the man that he was under arrest.

Quick as a flash Ferguson held a revolver in each hand and started for the door. A bullet from the pistol entered his back and he fell to the ground.

A passing ice wagon caught his attention and the three occupants were soon out of his way. Then at a terrific clip the wagon started across the Cumberland River bridge into East Nashville, a fusillade of shots following it.

Out Woodland street went the flying team, but a sudden turn brought it to a halt. One of the horses fell and broke its leg, but the fugitive was not to be delayed. Running across the street he held up an old negro driving in a buggy, and the flight was continued.

Out into the commons he sped. Once the buggy overturned, but was quickly righted. Finally the tired horse was abandoned and after a dive into Shelby Park on foot, the supposed bandit secured another horse, hitched at a point near the park. Then after a sensational ride, he made good his escape.

On the horse fell and broke its leg, but the fugitive was not to be delayed. Running across the street he held up an old negro driving in a buggy, and the flight was continued.

The Sheriff with another posse is out tonight to hunt the fugitive, and the man, when the buggy was abandoned the man threw away a wallet containing $100 in ten dollar bills. The man was the day for the chase. Chief of Police Curran now has the money.

The man, Annie Rogers, alias Ma Williams, arrested here some days ago with Montana bank bills in her possession, is still in the county jail. She is now being held to induce her to talk of her husband's failure. And she is now as much of an outcast as the man who was arrested.

Tonight the declared she knew nothing of any man named Ferguson, and would upturn the entire fair beyond answering direct questions in a negative manner.

GOING TO HIS DOOM

has decided that for the next thirty hours preceding the execution of Colquhoun, not one word of his condition or actions shall be given out from the prison. In other words, the man, beginning from midnight, is practically dead, so far as the public is concerned, and his death is accomplished.

At the execution on Tuesday, Dr. Carlos E. McDonald of New York, and Prison Physician Gerin will be the attending physician and the priest, if any are required by Colquhoun, will be the two Polish ones that have heretofore visited him. State Comptroller Knight of Buffalo has been asked to be present, and the official jury will be made up of prominent men, including some other State officials.

Turks Torturing Macedonians to Make Them Confess the Abduction.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M. J. SAMOKEFF (Bulgaria), Oct. 22, 5:30 p.m.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The release of Miss Stone, the missionary, has not yet been effected.

IN VILLAGE OF BELITZA. LONDON, Oct. 22.—A trustworthy report is in circulation here, says a dispatch from Sofia to the Daily Telegraph, "that Miss Stone, the village of Belitza, close to the frontier."

MUCH TELEGRAPHING. CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 22.—During the last few days there has been a voluminous exchange of dispatches in cipher between Spencer Eddy, secretary of the United States legation, and Consul-General Dickinson, who is now in Sofia, regarding the efforts to rescue Miss Stone, the abducted missionary.

NO NEWS TO GIVE OUT. WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—The State Department officials had no news to give out today regarding Miss Ellen M. Stone. Again today messages were sent to Consul-General Dickinson, who is at Sofia, and to Spencer Eddy, secretary of the United States legation, regarding the efforts to rescue Miss Stone, the abducted missionary.

Abductors Declared to Be Turks, Who Are Now Torturing Macedonians to Make Them Confess That Bulgarians Did the Kidnaping.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES. BOSTON, Oct. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The search of the Turkish authorities for the captors of Miss E. M. Stone, the captured missionary, has degenerated into a massacre of the Christian population in Macedonia. Under the caption "The Capture of Miss E. M. Stone," the Evening Post of Sofia, Bulgaria, copies of which have just been received in Boston, publishes a description of the capture of the American missionary.

The article contains an interview with Konstantin Pitala, a Bulgarian horse keeper, whose horses were ridden by Miss Stone, and her party, when they were held up by brigands in Turkish territory, about twenty miles from the Bulgarian frontier. It thus describes the capture and subsequent events:

"We were traveling from Bansk to Djanina (both are in Turkish territory) upon a mountain road. In a place known as Gradovite there suddenly appeared ten men, who, covering us with their rifles, called out 'Tessin clum' (Turkish for surrender). We were all on horseback, six women and three men, including Grigor Taltika (the husband of Miss Stone), and a student. We all dismounted and the men were given straight up the mountain. The place was almost impassable. The saddles of the horses and even the clothes of the women were scratched and torn to shreds by the heavy underbrush."

A Clean, Airy Store... A careful housewife will be most particular about the way her groceries are kept before they are brought to her. But she couldn't be any more particular about it than we are. Our store is as clean and sweet and airy as any store in town where you go shopping—dry goods or any other store. We understand the value of pure foods, and we understand the necessity of keeping them clean and sweet. In buying groceries "You're Safe at Jevne's." Smoke Jevne's Fine Cigars. 208-210 S. Spring St.—Wilcox Building.

Found at Last... "I have at last found a dentist who has pleased me, one who has made me a set of teeth I can wear." That is what our patients say when they leave us. Our Filling, Gold Crowns and Bridge Work are as successful as our plate work. We extract teeth absolutely without pain by the use of vitalized air.

Guaranteed... See Dr. Hutchison's Perfect Suction Plate, and you will have no other. Beware of imitations. SPINKS DENTAL PARLORS, Cor. Fifth and Hill. DR. W. E. HUTCHISON, Prop. Open Sunday, 9 to 1.

LAST WEEK... Was a record breaker. We made more plates, pleased more patients and caused more smiles of satisfaction than ever before. That means the ADHESIVE PLATE has hundreds of friends where six months ago it was not known in the West.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Frame Shack Burned.
Fire shortly after 10 o'clock last evening destroyed a tumble-down frame shack at the foot of Jackson street, near the Santa Fe railroad track. The building was valued at about $100, and was owned by Maggie Dixon, who used it as a place of abode.

New Shakespeare Club.
Mrs. Chester F. Dorland has organized a new club among the ladies of the Westlake district for the study of Shakespeare, and the classical drama. The club held its first meeting at the home of Mr. C. H. Hubbard, No. 640 Alvarado street, and started with nine members.

New Pastor Coming.
Rev. A. W. Baldridge of Pasadena preached in the pulpit of the First Cumberland Presbyterian Church, corner of Union and Tenth streets, yesterday morning. He was charged with the Rev. J. W. Landis of Missouri, the regularly appointed missionary pastor to succeed Rev. C. S. Tanner, who will arrive this week and take charge of the church. He will preach his opening sermon next Sunday.

Assault Map Arrested.
A man giving the name of Ed Miller was taken into custody at the corner of Washington and Main streets at 4:30 o'clock yesterday morning, and he is now at the City Jail, charged with insanity. He will be taken to the County Hospital today. Policeman Tom Rice found Miller creating a disturbance at the corner mentioned. He was alternately praying and cursing, and making wild gestures.

Broken, Cut and Bruised.
Three patients were treated for minor hurts at the Receiving Hospital yesterday. George Asseved of No. 27 Dale street sustained a laceration of his right forehead when he struck his head against a wall, while scuffling with a friend, Frank Jacobs, who lives at No. 446 Banning street. The patient was taken to the hospital. The third patient, John Shufeldt of Long Beach, who approached too near a buzz saw late in the afternoon, and lost the end of his left index finger.

New He's Going Back.
Charles Konneker, who escaped from the chain gang Friday afternoon, was arrested Saturday evening at his home at the corner of Central avenue and Washington street, and now it is probable that he will have to serve a longer sentence than that originally given him. Konneker was first arrested because he had defrauded the proprietor of the Tallyho Stables. He was charged with cruelty to animals and false pretenses, and was sentenced to serve sixty days in the County Jail. He had served about half his time when he made his escape.

Rascally Driver.
An investigation made by the police shows that Charles Lee of No. 123 Gladys avenue is the owner of the lumber wagon, a collision with which caused a severe injury to E. G. Fisher early Friday morning on Seventh street near Gladys avenue. Mr. Lee is entirely blameless and is doing all in his power to alleviate the sufferings of Fisher. He says he employed a stranger to drive, and the man deserted the wagon on Seventh street. When Lee ascertained this he gave the driver a lantern to place on the wagon as a danger signal, and supposed it had been done. Since giving the lantern to the driver he has seen neither. Fisher sustained severe cuts on the face when he rode his bicycle, head on, into the wagon, but is now rapidly recovering.

Hard to Collins.
Sam Collins, a laborer residing at the Lafayette House on Ducommun street, lay for more than four hours with a broken ankle in the Receiving Hospital early yesterday morning before his injury was treated. Collins was slightly under the influence of liquor when he slipped on the wet pavement and fell, at the corner of Los Angeles and First streets, at midnight. The patrol wagon carried him to the hospital, and a message was sent to Dr. Pierce. The doctor declined to respond to the call, and left instruction for the interne to attend to the injury. The interne did not return until after 1 o'clock, when he temporarily reduced the fracture. Collins was taken to the County Hospital yesterday, and there his broken ankle was set.

Little Boy Hurt.
Lester Hooker, 6 years old, who lives with his parents at No. 743 South Broadway, was severely injured early last evening by falling from a Temple-street cable car at the corner of Temple street and Broadway. Lester, with his mother and sister, was riding on the outside of the car, when, by a sudden lurch, he was pitched forward to the pavement. He struck on the right side of his head, and sustained a severe scalp wound just above the right ear. He also underwent a severe nervous shock, and was vomiting and very sick when picked up and carried to Bodenmann's drug store at the corner of Temple street and Broadway. Dr. S. A. Austin, of No. 121 North Hill street, was hastily summoned, and he dressed the child's injury. Later Lester was taken to his home in a carriage. Dr. Austin said last evening that the boy may be suffering from concussion of the brain.

BREVITIES.

The Times gives cash prizes each week for advance estimates as to the number of "liner" advertisements that will appear in its next Sunday issue—prizes ranging in amounts from $5 to $50 cents. Anybody who chooses may compete for these prizes. In last Sunday's paper there were 2359 separate and distinct "liners." The Sunday before there were 2058. How many there are today may be ascertained by counting. If you would like to make an estimate on the number to be in next Sunday, hunt up the advertisement elsewhere in this issue, and make it on the coupon printed therewith.

NEWEST "ISM" STARTED HERE.

It Claims to Abolish Bald Heads.

Also to Make People Live Forever.

"Christian Science" Must Take Back Seat for "Mental Science Temple."

Los Angeles, the rich soil in which there flourishes almost all the isms extant, has reason to throw her arms about herself, so to speak, and give herself an ecstatic hug, for a brand new cult has come here. The new idea is termed "Physical Immortality," and has attracted a company of adherents who assemble Sunday evenings in Blanchard's Hall, or as it is announced, the "Mental Science Temple."

The main apostle of the new theology is Prof. Thomas Henry Gage, who says the Angel City receives ideas with more warmth than his home folk in old England showed, and who purposes making this city the headquarters of the new philosophy. The gist of this novel theory is that physical immortality is desirable, is possible, and lies within the power of all who will strive for it. According to Prof. Gage, man may prove an exception to the laws of nature, witnessed in the birth, growth and death of its varied forms of existence. The secret lies simply in concentrating the mind upon the principle that old age is a disease, curable, and not necessary; that the body is constantly undergoing change in the casting off of atoms and attraction of other atoms, so that in a space of time less than two years it becomes an entirely reconstructed body—then how could it grow old? Why, the idea of old age is absurd; it is myth, and all that is necessary is not to believe in such a pernicious notion. Of course, if there is no old age, there will be no death. Disease is simply a little incidental that also can be easily wiped away by "concentration." Prof. Gage also has an infallible recipe for the prevention of accident, but the real reason for his teaching is that along yet to have that section imparted to it. What will Lewis the Light say to this infingment? In a short time the apostle of physical immortality hopes to have the hair restored on several bald heads in this city, and the simple matter of "concentration" is expected to equal the best of hair dye for results on gray hair.

And, best of all, a nominal fee of only $3 is required for instruction in classes now forming. Just think of that! Why, almost any kind of a funeral costs at least $50, and here's a chance for saving a few dollars to the good, which would come mighty handy, too, if one is to live forever. Mr. Gage is likely to get the undertakers down on him if he isn't careful.

A monthly publication is to be issued in this city, exploiting the new idea, and each week a lecture room in Blanchard's Hall will be filled with listeners. Last night a room full of people gathered to hear the new theory. Upon "The Fountain of Life." Yes indeed, they were there, and they affirm that the cult is no joke.

People who do not go to the rounds of a Sunday night have little idea of the number and variety of prophets that flourish here, the absurdities that are swallowed as gospel, and the adventures that fatten from the amazing credulity of seekers for new things.

Where it Didn't Pay.
Frette: Do you you, it's got to go with me now. I start out in the morning to go down to business I have to stop at the corner to study which route will be the least apt to confront me with a creditor.

Callous: Thank goodness, I am no longer a victim of any such sensation as you say by that you don't owe any one?

Callous: Far from it. I simply mean that there is no direction I can take that will insure any such exemption, and as a consequence, it doesn't pay to hesitate.—(Boston Courier.)

A Fruitless Lesson.

"DEPENDABLE FURNITURE AT A FAIR PRICE"

THE NEW JAPANESE RUGS have made an instant hit. There are two colors only—a cool and restful green and a handsome blue, combined with white.

These rugs have a heavy, substantial look and feel delightfully thick under the feet. These points, combined with the pleasing coloring and the taking designs, are what have made them so popular.

We Are All Ready for the Fall and Winter Trade.

The buying and planning of months ago has materialized and every corner of the store shows

The New Furniture.

Liberal space is devoted to each line and we display on our immense floor space many new and novel ideas.

Odd pieces and individual designs are a strong feature this fall and we show them for every room.

Remember that Peace furniture is good furniture and everything is marked in plain figures.

OUR ORIENTAL RUGS have attracted attention for a long time, and the reason is found in the fact that there is no such stock to be seen elsewhere in the Southwest. There is a more varied assortment to choose from here, which makes it much easier to find a size such as you want.
